

OBJECTIVES OF BUILDING COLLAPSE PREVENTION GUILD (BCPG)

- To promote acceptable building standards through public awareness campaign on best building practices and construction of structures.
- To bring together professionals in the built environment and eradicate quackery.
- To create awareness through the use of Community Development Associations and Resident Associations on the activities of the Guild in order to prevent building collapse.
- To promote and institute neighbourhood alerts on poor construction works and buildings showing signs of structural failure.
- To enlighten construction workers and equip them psychologically against ignorance and pilfering of construction materials
- To fight paucity of artisans by encouraging youths for skills acquisition.
- To discourage professional segregation, wrangling, rifts and promote synergy, interworking relationships among construction and built environment professionals for betterment of the construction industry.
- To advocate for importance of subsoil investigations through the publication of materials and journals .
- To advocate for bills that will encourage mortgage system that will ease the burden of owning a house
- To sensitize the public on the importance of building control through publication of magazines, and journals.
- To advocate for legislation that will ensure government at various levels and their agencies implement laws and regulations on building control.
- To contribute to the development of students in technical colleges and higher institutions of learning that offer building related courses through character moulding and career talks.
- To do all such other things as may be considered to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.